7. FYI: Allied Engineering Company plans to change the locks on all of the Electrical Vaults in the Headquarters building. They want to control all keys. At this time we have a master key to these vaults for use when electrical contractors have a need to enter the vaults. In the future an Allied representative would open the vault(s) at our request. This matter was brought to the attention of the Chief, NBPO. It was decided that, should this plan go into effect that Allied should provide the escort service for any contractor personnel required to enter the building.
